THE ENCHANTED BALL

AND THE CAUSE WE SUPPORT

The Enchanted Ball is the largest annual fundraising event for our beneficiary the Financial Markets Foundation for Children (FMFC) and the medical research it funds. The Enchanted Ball will take place on Friday 22 November at Crown Melbourne.

This magical evening of fun, entertainment, fundraising and networking is organised by volunteers from Australia's leading financial institutions and attended by 1,000+ guests.

The FMFC was established in 1990 by the Reserve Bank of Australia (RBA) and a group of Australia's leading banks and is singularly focused on raising funds for research into children's health issues.

Day-to-day administration is undertaken by a management committee, with administrative duties and costs being met by volunteers' time. This support enables the FMFC to operate on a unique 'dollar in/dollar out' basis, ensuring that every dollar donated is allocated directly to the Foundation and its grants.

THE FINANCIAL MARKETS FOUNDATION FOR CHILDREN

BRINGING HOPE TO FUTURE GENERATIONS

Over 34 years, the Foundation has allocated more than $30m to 262 research projects that focus on the health and welfare of Australian children. The grants are awarded to doctors, professors and scientists undertaking research projects at Australian research institutes, hospitals and universities.

SOME FMFC GRANTS INCLUDE:

A $160,000 grant (2019) to the University of QLD

'Acute Resuscitation in Paediatric Sepsis - a randomised controlled trial to reduce morbidity and mortality due to sepsis in children'.

ΜIΛ

Mia, now nine, suffered from sepsis aged five and lost both her legs. Children are still dying of sepsis in this day and age in our advanced health care system.

"One minute Mia was looking okay and 48 hours later her heart stopped. Within 48 hours you're at death's door. How do you as a parent reconcile that?". – Dr Sai Raman, Paediatric Intensivist, QLD Children's Hospital

"They would've just heard me screaming at the top of my lungs: "We're losing her!". – Amy Wilkinson, Mia's Mum

A $160,000 grant (2019) to the Murdoch Children's Research Institute 'Non-invasive detection of rejection after heart transplantation in children'.

LACHIE

Lachie, now ten, was born with two heart chambers instead of four. He's had three open heart surgeries and spent his first Christmas as a baby in hospital.

"I remember handing him over to the theatre technician...not knowing if we were going to have a son after this operation...he was in cardiac failure". – Carley Glendinning, Lachie's Mum

HOW YOU CAN PARTNER WITH US

To support our beneficiary - the FMFC - and enable it to continue its vital work with grant projects designed to improve the health and welfare of Australia's children, the Enchanted Ball Committee is co-ordinating a 2024 Tombstone.

Contributions from members of the financial markets community are donated directly to the FMFC, dollar for dollar, with participants appointed roles according to their contribution.

The Tombstone offers an exciting way to compete with your finance industry peers by making a pledge. We hope you will join us in making a charitable contribution to become a Co-Manager, Lead Manager, Global Arranger or Contributor in 2024.

Tombstone positions are as follows:

$10 - 15K — Contributor

- $15K Co-Manager
- $20K Lead Manager
- $25K+ Global Arranger

Global Lead Arranger is occupied by CBA as Enchanted Ball host bank.

We thank the following for their contribution to the 2023 Tombstone - NAB (Global Lead Arranger), ANZ, Westpac, CBA and Macquarie Bank, (Global Arrangers) Bank of America, Mizuho, RBC, TD, UBS (Co-Managers) and HSBC (Contributor). The final 2024 Tombstone will be announced at The Enchanted Ball and Tombstone participants will be acknowledged by way of:

- Company logo on Enchanted Ball website www.enchantedball.com.au
- Company logo on FMFC website www.foundationforchildren.com.au
- Full page advertisement in Kanga News (date TBC)
- Full page feature in the official Enchanted Ball program received by every guest
- Announcement of the final Tombstone contributions on digital screens at the Enchanted Ball
- Global Arrangers will also enjoy prominent bespoke signage at their table and preferential seating
